Book Week: Thursday 25th Aug

Next Thursday APS will celebrate Book Week! Come dressed as a book character, or within the theme “Dreaming with eyes open”.

After roll call, the Book Week Parade will begin on the top court. Parents are welcome to attend! Please use the QR code before you enter the school.

After the Parade, students will move to the Hall for a shared reading of “Where the Wild Things Are”.

After lunch, children will then participate in the Book Week show which starts with a Smoking Ceremony! If you haven’t filled in the online permission form, please make sure you do before Tuesday 23rd August. There is no payment needed, but we require permission in order to allow children to watch the show.

It’s going to be a great day and we look forward to seeing lots of fantastic costumes!

Following our recent mufti day, there is a large pile of Mufti clothes that were left behind. Sadly, these are unlabelled. If you are missing mufti clothes, especially jackets and hats, please encourage your child to look in the special bucket that is located on the Staff Room verandah.

And while we have your attention, please remember to label all your belongings!

Thank you.

Movie night - save the date

The P&C are organising a fund-raising movie night on Friday 16th September. They are just finalising all the details and will have more information soon, however they would like to encourage families to save the date!

They are keen to hear from anyone willing to volunteer to help with the event - planning and co-ordinating in the lead up and volunteering on the day (set-up, food, face-painting, games). For more details on how you can be involved, please message Lindsey on 0468 822 922.

A final word from Ms Rosebery

Oh what a night!

It has been a while since we have had the opportunity to “tread the boards” and perform live on stage... at the National Institute of Dramatic Arts none the less! CONGRATULATIONS to our Arncliffe troupe who filled the stage with a magical performance.

It has been quite a journey from beginning to end and I must say “What a lovely group of children were involved with this production.”

Even though there were lots of butterflies in their stomachs, they really let those butterflies fly and performed even better than I’d hoped.

Their behaviour backstage was excellent, though I suspect the dressing room full of lights and mirrors helped keep them entertained. From their comments, I know they had a great experience and I’m thankful for their kindly comments expressed to me. Yes parents, sometimes your children do show their appreciation.

An extra congratulations to our main characters and public speakers who put the icing on the cake of the performance.

If you wish to purchase a copy of the night’s performances, you can do so online at www.stagefrightcp.com.au You can order a DVD or DIGITAL copy.

I know that some pictures were published in last week’s newsletter, but I leave you with this fabulous picture of our cast on stage.
