SOMETHING ABOUT A COMET

After four days of workshopping an original musical, last night, these gifted and talented students performed to a packed out audience at Sutherland Pavillion Entertainment Centre.

Congratulations, especially to our students selected from APS: Piper; Emily; Max; Dylan and Sebastien. The quality of your professionalism was outstanding. Amazing!

It is always a privilege to work with a cast of students who have a passion for their craft. BRAVO!

National NAIDOC Week

National NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia in the first week of July each year (Sunday to Sunday), to celebrate and recognise the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. NAIDOC Week is an opportunity for all Australians to learn about First Nations cultures and histories and participate in celebrations of the oldest, continuous living cultures on earth.

Artist

Jeremy Morgan Worrall

Ancestral Lines is a visual representation of the lines and ties that follow a generation and the songs that come with it.

When I think of the next generation I think towards my Ancestor Lucy Wright, Enoch Wright, Nonie Wright, all the way from my Nanna Audrie to my Mother Vanessa.

When I look back at my mob it helps me see towards the future, it gives me hope and strength knowing what my mob have survived through and accomplished amid adversity.

Each person in the painting depicts a series of lines akin to songlines, that represent what they know, who they were and what they have passed on, the first being that of lore (interpretive), hunting, protecting, and tracking, the second of care, weaving, fishing, and love.

The third is when we see the two combine into one, and the last two take unfinished elements of them all, to show the passing down of knowledge and care.

Above them is the essence of the land they live and protect/care for. It is a depiction of my home the cold skies of Tenterfield with the swirling clouds and giant moon, a place around the fire is where the next Generation find their strength, vision and legacy.

Ancestral Lines by Jeremy Morgan Worrall

This artwork is a visual representation of the generational lines that carry through my mob. When I think of the next generation I think towards my ancestor my Auntie, Enoch Wright, Nonie Wright, through to my Nanna Audrie and my Mother Vanessa. Looking back gives me the strength and vision to look forward. Each figure in this painting is tied to their own line songlines, reflecting what they know and what they passed on. The first represents lore, hunting, protecting, and tracking, the second of care, weaving, fishing, and love. The third is when we see the two combine into one, and the last two take unfinished elements of them all, to show the passing down of knowledge and care. Above them is the essence of the land they live and protect/care for. It is a depiction of my home the cold skies of Tenterfield with the swirling clouds and giant moon, a place around the fire is where the next Generation find their strength, vision, and legacy.

Sculpture By The Green Parents Committee

Let's do this together!

We are inviting parents to help shape a special school community event, Sculpture by the Green, this November. It will celebrate creativity and connection, and we need a team to bring it to life.

- Small stalls (arts, crafts, handmade items)
- A collaborative Parents' Arts Installation
- A snack bar and sausage sizzle
- Inclusive activities that reflect the vibrancy of our school community

If you love planning and organizing, we want to hear from you! Your voice matters, and this is your opportunity to make the event meaningful. Let us know if you're interested; there's room for everyone to contribute.
